Read by English language specialists since 1978

EL Gazette (English Language Gazette), founded in 1978, is the voice of the English Language Teaching (ELT) industry and international English-medium education, providing a critical perspective on the intersection between the business and practice of language teaching. Eagerly received by over 15,000 professionals, when you advertise with EL Gazette you are engaging with and influencing one of the largest English language teaching communities.

About Us

Founded in 1978, EL Gazette (English Language Gazette) is a professional teaching publication for the English Language Teaching industry and international English-medium education.

Our high value content can be accessed on our website and is disseminated to our subscribers via newsletters and our hugely popular digital publication. Over 15,000 teaching professionals request EL Gazette, and our cleverly designed and interactive publication ensures high levels of engagement whilst delivering great outcomes for our commercial partners and advertisers.

EL Gazette always delivers thought-leading content and regularly covers the key sector topics including;

- News (noteworthy developments in ELT, or on how English language issues impact on politics around the world)
- Research News (highlights of current research in language acquisition and other areas of interest to our readers)
- Training News (reports on ELT training conferences, initiatives and events around the world)
- Business News (report on language school rankings, changes in ownership, or other ELT industry happenings)
- Reviews (ELT textbooks and course books selected by our reviewers) Interviews (interviews with leaders and managers in ELT)

Please note: These awards are based on the information found in the British Council Inspection reports on the language centres which the British Council accredits under the Accreditation UK scheme. The rankings are compiled by the EL Gazette and are not produced by the British Council, English UK or Accreditation UK.

EL Gazette often covers geographical or sector themes which are always popular with our audience. Frequent 'specials' are Latin America, South East Asia, The European Union, Middle East and North Africa, Europe, Russia and wider Europe, English for Academic Purposes, Young Learners, English for Work, Business English. Listings. We also run regular listings of courses available in a particular sector. These include MA TESOL courses, teacher development courses eligible for the EU's Erasmus+ funding and language schools that have been awarded EL Gazette Centre of Excellence status.
